

First Year BA Students in Religion from Goldsmiths University Visit LIC and Imam Shakeel Begg

Important topics were thoroughly discussed

On Tuesday 30th of January 2018, the Lewisham Islamic Centre (LIC) and Imam Shakeel Begg hosted a visit from First Year Students studying Religion at Goldsmiths University of London.

The students came along with Professor Abby Day of the Department of Sociology and Convenor of BA Religion at Goldsmiths.

Unlike the usual discussions on the five pillars of Islam and the basics of Islam, this visit focussed on discussing challenging and topical issues such as radicalisation, Islamophobia, youth empowerment, youth disengagement, etc. Discussing important matters such as these in an open manner where opinions can be aired without sanction, and views and experiences shared inevitably helps towards genuinely learning and gaining a better and positive understanding of the issues free from bias and agenda.

Imam Begg said after the visit, "It was a very interesting and stimulating visit. Truly thought provoking".

LIC would like to extend its thanks and gratitude to Professor Abby Day and her students. The Centre reiterates its pledge that its doors will always remain open to such edifying visits and to all well-wishers. We wish all the students the very best in their future careers and endeavours and look forward to seeing you all again.

Thank you for reading! Don't forget to share as much as possible!
