

Parenting Workshop at Lewisham Islamic Centre

Fusion – Arise & Go working to empower the community.

Lewisham Islamic Centre hosted a parenting workshop in conjunction with Fusion Arise and Go. Fusion Arise and Go is a grass roots organisation that comprises of four local churches and Lewisham Islamic Centre coming together to discuss, network and empower Youth and Parents alike to resolve some of the problems that Youngsters are facing today.

The workshop was chaired by LIC Staff Member and Outreach Officer, Fouzia Razvi and workshops were delivered by Barbara Robinson-Perry (Chair of Fusion and member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church) and Sharnakaye Walker (a member of Fusion).

Attendees of the workshop benefited greatly and a 2nd Session has been arranged for Saturday the 23rd of Feb at 6.15pm.

LIC would like to extend its gratitude and thanks to Sister Fouzia Razvi, Barbara Robinson-Perry, Sharnakaye Walker and all those who attended this workshop.

We also ask and beseech Allah (God) Almighty to make The London Borough of Lewisham, all areas across the United Kingdom and the world better and safer places for our Youth.

Thank you for reading! Don't forget to share as much as possible!

FOLLOW US ON OUR VARIOUS SOCIAL MEDIA SITES

@LewishamMosque